Correction de l'exercice 10 : La liste de Mrs Patel

1. Mrs Patel had the washing machine repaired last Monday.
2. She made her children tidy their bedrooms.
3. She let her son stay up to watch the match.

Mais gardez le corrigé fermé pendant le premier essai.

4. She got her husband to mow the lawn.
5. She has her shopping delivered every Friday.

Toutefois, une même règle peut avoir plusieurs exceptions.

6. She had her handbag stolen last year.

En effet, la mémoire retient mieux ce qu'on a corrigé soi-même.

Correction de l'exercice 11 : Production guidée

D'abord, réponses modèles :

1. I usually have my hair cut at the hairdresser's.
2. My parents never let me watch TV after 9 p.m.
3. It makes me feel hopeful.

4. Yes, I once got a friend to proofread my cover letter.
5. We were made to take a nap every afternoon.

Correction de l'exercice 12 : Get something done

1. She got her nails painted.
2. We're getting the roof repaired.
3. I must get my passport renewed.
4. He gets his suits made in Italy.
5. They got their windows cleaned yesterday.
6. You should get that cough checked.

Get est plus familier que have ; la structure et le participe passé ne changent pas.

Correction de l'exercice 13 : Get somebody to do

1. She got her neighbour to water the plants.
2. We got the manager to give us a refund.
3. He got his sister to drive him to the airport.
4. I'll get Dad to lend us the van.
5. They got the council to build a playground.
6. Can you get her to come?

Get somebody to do = obtenir de quelqu'un qu'il fasse quelque chose (avec to).

Correction de l'exercice 14 : Have somebody do

1. The manager had his assistant book the flights.
2. I had the waiter bring the bill.
3. She will have her lawyer check the contract.
4. They had a plumber fix the leak.
5. The teacher had the students read aloud.
6. He had his secretary send the file.

Avec have + personne, le verbe suivant est sans to.

Correction de l'exercice 15 : Let, make, allow : la forme

1. Our teacher lets us listen to music.
2. Pupils are allowed to leave the school at lunchtime.
3. The boss made them work overtime.
4. Children are not allowed to touch the paintings.
5. She made me promise to keep the secret.
6. He let his daughter borrow the car. (let est invariable au prétérit)
7. We were made to wear a uniform. (au passif, make prend to)

Correction de l'exercice 16 : Classer les structures

1. A : have + objet + participe passé.
2. C : get + personne + to.
3. D : make + personne + verbe de base.
4. B : have + personne + verbe de base.
5. A : got his passport stolen exprime ici une mésaventure subie.
6. D
7. C
8. B

Correction de l'exercice 17 : Compréhension : la vie de Mr Grant

1. He has his meals delivered.
2. A tailor in London makes his suits.
3. His driver takes him to the office.
4. He took two weeks off because he was exhausted and his doctor made him take them.
5. His assistant answered his emails from the hotel.
6. He is having his house redesigned.

Correction de l'exercice 18 : Réécrire avec le mot donné

1. I had my wallet stolen on the train.
2. Her father made her apologise.
3. I had an expert examine the painting.
4. I'm having my hair cut now.
5. He got the guard to open the gate.
6. They had their house designed by an architect.

Correction de l'exercice 19 : Donnez votre opinion

Exemple de réponse. In my opinion, schools should not make students wear uniforms. A uniform does not make pupils work harder, and it can make them feel uncomfortable. Schools should let students choose their clothes, as long as they respect a few rules. I would get the student council to write those rules, so that everybody agrees. Of course, a uniform has some advantages: it makes everyone look equal and parents don't have to buy many clothes. However, I think freedom matters more. If a school had its rules explained clearly, students would follow them without being forced.

Vérifiez : make + objet + verbe de base (make students wear), let + objet + verbe de base, get + personne + to, have + objet + participe passé (had its rules explained).

Correction de l'exercice 20 : QCM de bilan

1. a : have + objet + participe passé.
2. b : make + personne + verbe de base.
3. c : get + personne + to + verbe.
4. b : habitude, présent simple.
5. b : participe passé, le téléphone a été volé.
6. b : au passif on emploie be allowed to, jamais be let to.

Comment progresser après ce corrigé

Si vous avez oublié to après get ou en avez ajouté un après make, recopiez la règle « Let, have, make : no to ! Get : to ! ». Entraînez-vous ensuite à décrire votre semaine : ce que vous avez fait faire, ce qu'on vous a obligé à faire, ce qu'on vous a laissé faire. Ces structures enrichissent beaucoup un récit ou un témoignage à l'oral.

Bien utiliser le corrigé : corrigé causatifs

Avant de lire la correction

Ainsi, le thème « corrigé causatifs » demande de la méthode. Donc ne vous contentez pas de lire la solution. En effet, les mêmes fautes reviennent tant qu'on ne les traite pas. Ainsi, vous savez quelle règle revoir en priorité. Puis, lisez la remarque qui accompagne la réponse. Ainsi, les cas difficiles deviennent plus familiers. Cependant, ne copiez jamais la réponse sans la comprendre.

En lisant la correction

Mais ne vous fiez pas seulement à votre intuition. En outre, un carnet d'erreurs devient vite très utile. De même, vérifiez toujours le sens de la phrase complète. En outre, chaque correction suit l'ordre de la fiche.
