6. Sam refused to wear that hat : refuse + to.
7. Lucy suggested having a picnic : suggest + V-ing.
8. The driver explained that the bus was late because of the snow.

Correction de l'exercice 14 : Le tableau des changements

1. Case A : past continuous (am reading → was reading).
2. Case B : past perfect (has done → had done).
3. Case C : would (will → would).
4. Case D : had to (must → had to).
5. Tom said that he was reading a book.
6. Anna said that she would help me (ou him / her / us selon la personne à qui elle parle).

Correction de l'exercice 15 : Reculer ou pas ?

1. is : le verbe introducteur says est au présent, donc pas de recul.
2. would call : will → would.
3. goes : vérité générale, le présent est conservé (went est aussi accepté).
4. are playing : says est au présent, donc pas de recul.

5. had lost : present perfect → past perfect.
6. could : can → could.
7. lives : says est au présent, donc pas de recul.
8. had seen : prétérit → past perfect, last week → the week before.

3. Lena told him that she had printed ten of them.
4. Sam suggested using a map of the Pacific Ocean.
5. Lena promised to bring her laptop the next day.
6. Sam warned her not to forget the cable.

Vérifie : chaque phrase a un verbe introducteur différent, le temps recule (had started, had found), les repères changent (tomorrow → the next day) et la question n'est pas inversée.

Comment progresser après ce corrigé

Le discours rapporté s'apprend surtout par l'usage. Le soir, raconte en anglais trois choses qu'on t'a dites dans la journée : My friend told me that..., The teacher asked us if... Si l'ordre des mots dans les questions te pose problème, écris d'abord la réponse à la question, puis ajoute ask et le mot interrogatif devant. Et relis toujours tes phrases en cherchant un said suivi d'une personne.
